FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

To John Weston and wife Bettie, and Stephen F. Walcott and wife Sarah O. V.—Greeting:

WHEREAS default has been made by the mortgagors respectively named in the mortgages following, executed to the Cape Fear Building Association, viz:

Two mortgages executed by John Weston and wife Bettie, one bearing date 10th day of June, 1870, and registered in the Register's office of New Hanover county, in book 27, page 385, and the other dated 4th January, 1872, and registered as aforesaid in book D D D, page 279.

And two mortgages executed by Stephen F. Walcott and wife Sarah O. V., one bearing date the 9th day of December 1869, and registered as aforesaid in book Y Y, page 149, and the other bearing date the 19th day of February, 1872, and registered as aforesaid in book E E, page 7.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the powers of sale contained in the mortgages respectively named in the mortgages as aforesaid, the said mortgages will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises thereon respectively described, at public auction, at the court house door in the city of Wilmington, on Monday the 21st day of July, 1873, at 11 o'clock A. M. The said premises are respectively described in the said mortgages substantially as follows, viz:

John Weston's lot begins at a point in the northern line of Church street, 110 feet east of Fifth street, and runs easterly along Church street 27 1/2 feet, by 66 feet deep—part of lot 6 block 11.

Stephen F. Walcott's lot begins at a point in the eastern line of Front street 96 feet southwardly from Wooster street and runs southwardly along Front street 38 feet by 79 1/2 feet deep—part of lot 2 block 45.

Terms of sale cash.

Observer, U. S. A.

WELL is rapidly closing out his Market street stock at low prices.

STEAMBOATMEN report a slight rise in the river at Fayetteville.

S. HANSTEIN & Co., New York House, 15 Market street, are offering their entire stock of drygoods, clothing, boots and shoes, at New York cost.

REHEARSAL--The Cornet Concert Club are to have a rehearsal to-night at their club room.

We direct the attention of the Health Officers to the lot or lots on Market, between Second and Third streets.

The cheapest stock of drygoods to be found this side of New York is at S. HANSTEIN & Co.'s New York House, 15 Market street.

PRIZES--The prizes which are to be awarded to the successful boats at the next regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club are on exhibition in Honnet's show window.

TO MAKE room for a large Fall stock we have reduced our prices, and are now selling our entire stock cheaper than the cheapest.

S. HANSTEIN & Co., New York House, 15 Market street.

THERE will be a meeting of the Auditing Committee to-morrow night, and a meeting of the County Commissioners on Monday night, at their rooms at the Court House.

THERE will be a meeting to-morrow at the Commercial Exchange of the two Committees, one on behalf of the city and the other on behalf of the property holders on Princess street, to take into consideration the proposition to pave it.

The only chance of getting a suit of clothing, shoes, shirts, &c., at New York cost, is to go to S. HANSTEIN & Co.'s, New York House, 15 Market street.

IN spite of the complaints of hot days, the season so far has been as pleasant a summer as we have ever known here. If the weather continues in August and September as charming as it was in June and July, we shall not complain.

AN unusual dullness seems to prevail in the item market to-day. The Post reporters labored hard, but news continued scarce. Collectors are all busy leaving their little bills about among their customers, and much money changed hands to-day. Even the Post got money in spite of the dull times!

A COLORED man, name unknown, while engaged in ditching at Larkin's plantation, at Alligator creek, was bitten by a "low-land moccasin" in two of his fingers. He tied his arm tightly with a cord and started for the city, where he was treated at Green & King's Drug Store. No danger is apprehended.

THE Post cares but little for the scattering shots fired at it by speakers who do not know enough of language to interpret an ordinary sentence. The Post is happy to furnish information to those needing it, even if gratuitously done, but it cannot pretend to furnish brains also.

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 28, 1873.
At a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of New Hanover county, held this day, the following resolutions were adopted, to which the attention of the several township committees is called:

Resolved, That the Secretary be ordered to notify the several members of the County Committee, through the columns of the Evening Post, to apply to the Secretary of this committee for tickets for or against the proposed amendments to the Constitution, on or after Friday next, the 1st day of August.

Resolved further, That the committees in the several townships be notified that they are expected to see tickets furnished for their several townships for the candidates for township officers.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.
— Gold is 115½.
— Pay city taxes.
— The river is low.
— See if you are registered.
— No Mayor's Court to-day.
— Vote against the Amendments.
— Mosquitos are still in good supply.
— Roads are good, and driving pleasant.

— To-day commences the last month of summer.

— Nearly one hundred of our citizens left this week for the balance of the summer.

— The lightning struck a tree on Second street, between Ann and Nun streets, yesterday.

THERE were mailed at the Postoffice in this city during the month of July 62,000 letters, or an average of 2,000 per day.

C. D. MYERS & Co., have on exhibition this morning the finest peaches and melons of the season. Grapes are quite abundant, but nothing of the present kind can take the place of the luscious scuppernon yet to come.

MORE than twenty Observers have volunteered to accompany Professor Wise on his European balloon voyage, but General Myers decided not to detail any one, on account of the extreme peril incident to such a trip.

THE Republican voters of Masonboro' intend having a large mass meeting at the polling place in said township on Tuesday next, at 12 M. Hon. George L. Mabson, Duncan Holmes, Esq., and others, will address the meeting in relation to the proposed amendments to the constitution, &c.

THE Post notices that the City Railway Company are erecting a large and commodious stable at the corner of Red Cross and Seventh Streets, for the better accommodation of the motive power of their cars. The building will be finished in a few days.

WE again call attention to those who wish their Church notices published, to hand them in to-morrow morning. We will cheerfully publish all religious notices free of charge, but in order to have our Church Directory correct, we will only print such as are handed to us each week for publication.

"O, what a fall was there, my countrymen." At Buie's grocery store, on Princess street, there was a shelf, on which stood many bottles of choice liquors. Pendant from the ceiling, directly overhead, hung many hams. One connecting string, on the sturdy hook, gradually wasted away, and yesterday it parted! The crash aroused the neighborhood, and the sub-clerks were busy for some time sweeping up the broken glass and mopping up the wasted liquors.

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 31, 1873.
At a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee for Wilmington township, held this date, the following business was transacted, to wit:

Th resignation of Isham Swett, Esq., as a candidate for School committeeman for the township, was read and accepted and on motion, the Secretary was directed to insert the name of Jas. H. Chadbourn, Esq., in his stead, he having been unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy.

ED. R. BRINK, Chairman.

W. H. GERKEN, Sec'y.

THE extension of the Street Railway to a point quite near the entrance to Oakdale Cemetery, is a step in the right direction by the management of the Company, and the very many who have occasion to visit that sacred place feel thankful for the accommodation.

THE Post again urges the Railway Company to heed the demand made by the citizens of the Southern and South-eastern portions of our city, and, acting on the suggestions it has already given, extend its track on Front and Seventh streets, as far South as Castle street. There are hundreds of laboring men living in those portions of the city to whom the extension of the railroad in the direction spoken of would be of great convenience, enabling them to get to their respective places of business with but little delay.

Castle street is, we believe, the only street in the city (except Market street) open its entire length from the Cape Fear river to the Eastern boundary at Seventh street, and now that that street is opened, and as it is proposed to open a new road from the Eastern terminus of Castle street in the direction of the Sounds, we think that the railway, though extending but a few squares along Castle street, will prove to be but a part of the Sound Railroad that Wilmington has been talking about for some time past, and which is bound to be built at a no very distant day.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MR. EDITOR: I took occasion a few days ago to call your attention to the most important of the proposed amendments to our State Constitution, and now I will briefly notice one of the most frivolous. It is proposed to take the University from the control of the Board of Education, and place it under the charge of the Legislature. What change for the better can result from the adoption of this amendment? Is it pretended that the Legislature, as a body, has the educational interests of the State more at heart than the Board of Education? It is impossible to believe otherwise than that it is fondly expected that the Legislature may continue Democratic, and thus place the University under the fostering care of men who are opposed to the general diffusion of knowledge.

The University of this State is now but the shadow of a once mighty name. It is idle to charge the disaster which has befallen it upon either of the political parties which have acted in this State since 1868. The gloom of those silent corridors and empty halls fell from the clouds of war. To the ambition of that spirit which precipitated the South into a foolish rebellion must be attributed the destruction of the Southern institutions—those of learning among the rest.

But to return. Neither the Board of Education nor the Legislature can rehabilitate the University. The State is unable to endow it while it is the property of the State, and liable to be drawn into the vortex of politics, as the democracy is endeavoring to do; private munificence will be withheld, and from the want of money the institution must continue in its languishing condition. What then can be done? Sell it. Let loose the capital invested in those buildings and grounds, called the University of North Carolina, and let it be called the Vanderbilt University, or whatever name its purchaser may choose to give. The State is utterly unable to maintain a University, and why keep up the farce any longer of having one.

It is a part of the trickery which is being played upon the people of the State to lug University in. How forcibly it appeals to every alumnus of that venerable college to be told his alma mater is almost in the agonies of death. That she is the prey of a corrupt political party which has wellnigh achieved her ruin! But there is a remedy. Place the dear old lady in the hands of the honest, unfettered, pure democracy of North Carolina, and we will revive her. We can give her a dowry; we will marry her to science, and again shall she send forth an illustrious progeny to bear her name and virtues over this fair land!

The object of the Democrats is to keep in power. They know the State is overwhelmingly Republican, but they have so manipulated the Senatorial districts that they must be Democratic 'till they are remodeled. For the purpose of retaining power, these honest gentlemen of the Democracy went about the country two years ago, beseeching their constituents to save their souls from the sin of perjury by calling a Convention. For the same purpose they have proposed these amendments, many of them silly, and two, at least, tricky, hoping by artifice and cajolery to get a large Republican vote in their favor.

Republicans, be on your guard. Examine these amendments, and you cannot fail to discern the pit which has been dug for you. Be ever watchful, and distrust the benefits which the Democrats are so swift to confer upon you. The State is yours; keep it. Be not terrified or seduced into the support of the Democrats, no matter in what guise they may come.

Respectfully yours, S.

Wilmington, July 31st, 1873.

The Era says: We have received information from Mr. Airy, of the death of Mr. Samuel Forkner, editor of the Surry Visitor, from Typhoid Fever at that place on the evening of July 27th. Mr. Forkner was a man whose ability in professional and political life was thoroughly known. During his career the deceased has done much good for his native State, and the sudden news of his death will cause sadness in the large circle of friends which his kindly nature drew around him.

The Raleigh News says: Sheriff Bell, of Bertie county, has written a letter to Governor Caldwell, informing him of the fact that one Dennis Brown and one Ben Smallwood escaped from the jail of that county and are now at large. On the night of the 23rd they went to the house of a colored man, called him out and shot him down. A posse of one hundred men are scouring the county for the murderers, who are supposed to have crossed the Roanoke river into Halifax county.

Scandal, like a reptile crawling over a bright grass, leaves a trail and a stain.

SPAIN.

MADRID, August 1.
In the Cortes, Senor de Gonzales, Minister of War, read a despatch announcing that the insurgents had recommenced firing upon the city of Almiria. This afternoon the insurgents projectiles demolished the house occupied by the German Consulate, notwithstanding the Consular flag was flying over the building.
In the Cortes to-day the Deputies of the Left protested against the proposed vote of thanks to the citizens of Almiria for their devotion to the republic. Angry exclamations from members of the majority followed the protest.

Senor Quintero made a speech, in which he defended the proceedings of the insurgents.

Members of the majority again protested against the course of the Deputies of the Left, when a passionate debate followed, attended by a scene of great confusion.

The insurgents at Carthage attempted to fit out the iron clads Mendez, Pinto, and Fernando El Colito to assist the vessels engaged in the attack upon Almiria, but found their supply of coal insufficient.

The insurgent government at Carthage made an effort to place a loan in London, but failed to secure any offers. A body of seven hundred insurgents from Carthage, surprised the garrison of Orihuela, in the province of Alicante, captured that town, and are now marching upon the city of Alicante.

The insurgents in Valencia are reported as becoming more discouraged, and Gen. Martinez anticipates an easy victory over them.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal, and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveler.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the paternalist by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N.Y. Evening Post.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly,
Creswell F. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873.

A. H. STRASSBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUCUET CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very respectfully and truly,
S. MCGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be employed to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work where paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.
WM. E. SINN.

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The Paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we can recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.
Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, December 27th, 1871.
I purchased from you what we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities are everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very Respectfully,
EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Fresco Painters.
PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.
Very Respectfully,
R. DICKEY, M. D.
No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.
MANAGER POST.

Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it has not the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

In accordance with our last prospectus, the specially reduced rates for 1873, viz: Weekly, per year, $10 00; Semi-Weekly, per year, $2 50; Daily, with Sunday Edition, $12 00, will be maintained for all new subscribers, and all old subscribers renewing prior to the 15th day of January, 1873, when the above Club rates will take effect.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choice of Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

THE TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

ASA REPUBLICAN JOURNAL.

The Times will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians to demagogue to reach power under false pretences. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $2; two copies, one year, $3; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office money. Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address
THE NEW YORK TIMES,
New York City.

The American Farmer.

This old standard monthly journal of agriculture begins a new volume January 1. Special attention is paid—besides that given the stable crops—to stock breeding, fruit growing, the dairy, &c. Some of the most successful of American agriculturists contribute to its pages. It is practical, substantial, reliable. Subscription $2 a year. Clubs of five or more, only $1 each. Very handsome premiums for clubs. Specimen number free. SAM'L SANBORN & SONS, Publishers, Baltimore, Md.
